

Sirius Group's Contractor's Professional and Pollution Legal Liability Plus (CPPL) protects against environmental liabilities that are not typically covered by a general liability policy. The CPPL policy provides coverage for clean-up costs, bodily injury, property damage (including natural resource damage), and legal costs caused by a pollution condition resulting from contracting services or completed operations. The CPPL policy also includes coverage for professional liability resulting from actual or alleged acts, errors, or omissions from professional services, including professional redress and protective coverage.
